MEET THE COACHING STAFF

Martin Speight
Technical Director of Cricket

Martin is one of, if not the, preeminent school cricket coach in the UK. A hugely talented wicketkeeper-batsman himself, formerly playing for Sussex and Durham. As a coach he has been successful in leading teams to National success and is respected for his nurturing of exceptional talent – he has helped to develop a number of First Class and International cricketers (boys and girls) including current England batsman Harry Brook.

Gareth James
Director of Sport

Gareth has an impressive background in both professional sport and independent school leadership. Following a career in professional cricket with Essex CCC, where he played and coached across both first-class and T20 campaigns, Gareth has led high-performance sports programmes as Director of Sport at leading independent schools.
