

This week in the Boarding House

Dear Parents and Pupils,

On Monday of this week it rained, but we brought 40-40 and hide & seek inside. Nothing will stand in the way of the boarders' love for these activities. When it comes to adjusting the regulations for indoor space, they're on it!!

We leaped at the chance to take Slippers (the house dog) on a dog walk on Tuesday. Lucia, one of our senior boarders, took to her right away, taking care of her in the house, making sure she had water and went to the toilet, and so on. She loved it so much that she wants this job every Tuesday. I'm sure slippers enjoyed the attention!

Tuesday night felt like a scene from The Princess Diaries. The fact that none of the boarders understood what I was talking about demonstrated my age, but we had a fantastic time carrying all of our old mattresses downstairs! Emma Bridgewater pottery was heavily guarded!

On Wednesday, we relished the return of the fire pit, toasting marshmallows and playing another game of 40/40 in! A film concluded the evening.

We had a dog walk with Lola and slippers on Thursday, followed by watching surfs up in the TV room with lots of dog cuddles.

We're looking forward to one more week before a well-deserved break.

We'll be going to the Kinema on Wednesday, November 11, to see the Canterville ghost. Popcorn and drink will be provided, but pupils may bring extra money to purchase something else.

I hope you have had a wonderful weekend.

Best Wishes,

Mrs Warwick-Smith
